Description :

PDF-c0c2d | Robert Adams (born 1937) describes his home modestly and affectionately: "A friend once referred mischievously to the house as our 'cottage.' Built in 1941, it is now closely surrounded by other houses, though the front yard is shielded to one side and toward the street by green. And from the back porch there is a view of the Columbia River." Over his 45-year career Adams has been primarily kn... Robert Adams: Around the House
